To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BUTTER.—A large quantity of butter was again brought into our market to-day, and prices were up to a high figure for the best lots. Some sold as low (2) as 35 cents per pound, but No. 1 butter brought from 40 to 42 cents. Butter spreading thus becomes a serious matter again in most households. The continued dry weather in this region tends to diminish the quantity of butter made, and to make farmers more anxious to secure the highest possible price which can be secured. The amount shipped from here this week is large, however, being 2,210 tubs, or about 110,500 pounds.

Not much cheese was brought in, it being usually purchased at the factories and not shipped from here on the regular butter market day. The price of factory cheese is from 14 to 15 cents per pound. That made in 16 to 18 inch hoops sells the most readily, we believe, as it is liked better abroad and as well at home, and hence is suited to both home and foreign markets; while that made in larger hoops finds no ready sale for shipment abroad. This little foreign prejudice against large cheese makes a difference of from one to two cents per pound in the price which dealers are willing to pay, and factories will do well to make a note of it for their future benefit.

"WHOA, JANUARY!"—The Bucephalus, hitched to the "Weldens House" baggage wagon made another charge from the passenger depot about 6 o'clock this morning. At the first dash he went through John Dewey's mail wagon, disconnecting the bulk of it from the forward wheels, which was converted into kindlingwood immediately. Thereupon John's horse thought it was about time for him to be going, and away he went up Lake Street at a 240 gait for his stables, where he arrived minus forward wheels, harness, and everything, which balance of livery was scattered on the way. The Weldens House steed charged down by the freight depot with the empty wagon attached, up Stebbins Street into the picket fence; and down South Main Street, where the force of the charge was expended, and he came to a halt in front of Mr. Abel Houghton's residence. The strength of the Weldens House wagon was put to a severe test but it proved equal to the occasion, and came out of the exercise-sound. A word of caution may not be inappropriate, and we would recommend our citizens, even now, in times of peace, to look out for that "hoss & buggy."

Republican Caucus.

Agreeably with the call of the Town Committee, the Republicans of St. Albans, to the estimated number of 300, assembled in Academy Hall last evening, to nominate a candidate for Town Representative.

The meeting was called to order at half-past seven o'clock, by D. R. Potter, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, and on his nomination Captain Almont Barnes was chosen President, and Albert Clarke, Secretary.

Mr. B. F. Rugg moved that Charles Wyman be nominated for Town Representative, which motion was seconded by C. C. Burton.

Herbert Brainerd stated that Mr. Wyman was absent from town, but that he called upon him before he left, and urged him to consent to become a candidate, but he positively refused, and said that as he now had no business partner he could not take the office without great detriment, and should not consent to be a candidate.

Julian H. Dewey, Esq., then presented the name of GEORGE G. HUNT, Esq., which was greeted with applause, and seconded by several gentlemen.

Mr. John J. Burgess stated that he was and had been one of Mr. Wyman's friends, and last year worked and pleaded for him to the best of his ability; that this year he had tried to prevail upon him to run for the office, but had been repeatedly assured by Mr. Wyman that, for the reasons stated by Mr. Brainerd, he could not and should not consent. And Mr. Burgess now felt sure that this motion to nominate Mr. Wyman was without his knowledge or consent, and against his wishes.

The question was then taken on Mr. Rugg's motion, and it was decided in the negative—there being only one vote in the affirmative.

Mr. Rugg then said something inaudible about "compliment" or "compromise," and left the Hall.

The question was then taken on Mr. Dewey's motion, and Mr. Hunt was unanimously nominated, amid applause, and was called upon for a speech, to which he briefly responded, very kindly thanking his friends for the high honor they had done him, and expressing the hope that, since they had launched his little boat on an untried sea—to him—they would see him safely ashore on election day.

On motion of Edward A. Smith—adjourned.

ALMONT BARNES,
President.

ALBERT CLARKE,
Secretary.

THE DROUGHT.—We hear considerable complaint from our neighbors in the village on account of the very severe drought which is now prevailing in this vicinity. The gardens are generally suffering badly for want of rain, and in many of them the vines are already dead, and should water not come soon it will be of little account hereafter. The greater portion of the wells in town are without water, and too much precaution cannot be taken against fires. The drought has also seriously affected the potato crop in this vicinity, and it is probable that not one half as many bushels will be raised, in this town at least, as last year. While rain has fallen in the north, west, south and east in abundance, everything here shows "the sere and yellow leaf" hue, and even the grasshoppers find dry pastures. The feed in the fields is so scanty as to lessen the yield of milk, and the present rise in the price of butter shown by our market report is almost wholly due, we think, to the comparative scarcity produced by the long continued hot weather, and absence of usual rains.

MR. PLACE AS AN OFFICER.—Mr. Place, our excellent candidate for Sheriff, has filled the office of Constable in the Town of Highgate for the last twelve or fourteen years, and still holds the same office, and is regarded as one of the most intelligent, honest, and thorough officers in the county. With these recommendations, and the fact that he is a fairly nominated candidate of the party, we confidently expect his election.

In a small town in Hartford county, Conn., resides a clergyman who is the pastor of a small flock, who esteem him very highly, and he is fond of catechizing. A few days since, while he was taking a ramble through the village, he stopped at the house of one of his parishioners, and, after the usual salutations had been exchanged, the conversation ran as follows: "Well, Sister W., can you tell me how Adam fell?" The lady commenced to smile audibly, and finally replied: "Why, my dear Doctor, you're not serious?" "Very serious, indeed," responded the Doctor. Mrs. W., whose husband's name happens to be Adam, replied: "Well, well, you will have it, Doctor. You see, Adam went to climb over the fence the other night to go to Deacon M.—'s for a bottle of whiskey, when an owl lying on the ground took his foot. Over Adam fell and barked his shin, and that's the whole truth of the matter."

GEORGIA.—At the Republican town Caucus, held at Georgia last evening, Joseph Purmort, Esq., was nominated for Town Representative. We understand his competitor was Mr. Cephus Hotchkiss, of Georgia Plain. We hear that Mr. Purmort's loyalty to the regular ticket had something to do with his nomination, and as he is a valuable citizen of an adjoining town, and supports the regular ticket without a scratch, we hope he will be elected.

Politics in Georgia.

GEORGIA, AUGUST 25, 1868.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:

We had a caucus last night. We are peculiarly situated in Georgia as we most always are.

We have a Republican town committee but they are Democrats—that is to say they are working night and day for the success of the representative of "democratic" ideas in this county.

They did not call a caucus to send delegates to the Congressional District Convention because democrats are not supposed to take any interest in that matter but they called a town caucus last evening. I heard accidentally of the call and that there were seventy-six candidates for representatives and of course I attended.

The democratic chairman of the republican committee called the meeting to order which was duly organized by the addition of a republican chairman and a democratic secretary after which it was voted to proceed to ballot for a candidate for town representative. It was evident that all the preliminary pipe laying had been done in advance for like deep waters, every thing moved still. We have in town one man who has acquired an unenviable reputation by always having and freely expressing opinions of his own. He is a republican and is always ready to speak and vote for republican principles; he is sometimes willing to make compromises on men but of principles never. He holds in utter contempt many of the expedients resorted to for party purposes but nevertheless generally votes a straight party ticket as the only available means of sustaining the principles that he believes essential to the salvation and prosperity of the country.

When it became evident to him that no names were to be openly presented for the consideration of the meeting, but that all was cut and well dried before coming to the place of meeting, he arose and said that he had come to the caucus to cast his vote, that he wanted to vote understandingly, that he had learned to distrust all that sham modesty that votes by proxy, that if there are candidates for nomination here who want the votes of Republicans they must come out and avow their determination to support Republican principles by voting for the Republican nominees of the National, State, District, and County Conventions.

It affords me pleasure to record the fact that two of the candidates did personally announce themselves as supporters of the principles of the party as expounded by the Conventions named as represented by the nominees of these Conventions. A third candidate was properly avouched for by a true Republican, but his name was withdrawn after the second ballot by the Democratic Chairman of the Town Committee. It is to be regretted that an old adage—"A man is known by the company he keeps"—should sometimes operate to the disadvantage of very worthy men, but so it is, and it is hard rooting out old prejudices, though founded on so slight a foundation as an old adage.

The final result indicates a prevalence of a wonderful degree of unanimity for Georgia and it is believed that the regular Republican ticket will receive the hearty support of the Republican voters of Georgia. Joseph Purmort, Esq., was unanimously nominated as the Republican Candidate for Representative. It is hardly necessary to say that Mr. Purmort supports regular Republican nominations, and expects and desires the support of all regular Republicans.

O. S. B.

MR. GEO. WOOD, a student in Union Theological Seminary, N. Y., is now supplying the desk of the Congregational Church in Georgia, for a short time.

PERSONAL.—Melendy, Dexter & Co., is the style of a new boot and shoe firm composed of five Vermonters and located at 59 and 61 Congress Street, Boston. We called on them recently, and although others complain of dull times, all there were as busy as bees. There are no drones in that hive, and with abundant facilities, much of their stock being of their own manufacture, they offer unsurpassed advantages to purchasers. We commend them to the notice of the Vermont trade.

FENIAN RAID.—The correspondent of a Springfield paper writes: "I hear from sources that are reliable, that there is a strong certainty of another raid across the border the coming season. That it will amount to anything is, of course, not even possible; but that Gen. O'Neil will undertake it, in the hope that between the two parties seeking the Irish vote, he will not be greatly hindered or molested by our government, is reasonably sure. He has the reputation of being a great deal more efficient and resolute than any of his predecessors in that proud position, and he will make a less contemptible failure of it, probably than any of them, which is about all that can be said for it."

"Obtaining money under false pretenses"—vending miserable hair preparations. A trade that is fast dying out, however; for the universal popularity of Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is rapidly putting a stop to such contraband traffic.—Richmond Enquirer.

Coming Again!!

Seventh Visit!

IMMENSE SUCCESS!!!

A. D. CRABTREE, M. D.
THE SANATORIUM,

WILL Make his Seventh visit to St. Albans, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, Sept. 9, 10 and 11. He will visit West Berkshire, Thursday, Sept. 12, Enosburgh Falls, Friday and Saturday 13, 14, 15, Shelton, Monday and Tuesday Sept. 16 & 17, Bakersfield, Saturday 18, Cambridge, 19, 20, 21, Johnson, 22, Hydeport 23. The Doctor's last visit here was marked by a greater number of patients than formerly. All the papers agree that he is the most successful, and the only traveling doctor that can month after month and year after year, visit the same places. Now cases are continually done by his treatment, which are useless to publish as he is so well known. The Mayor of Vergennes certifies that Dr. Crabtree cured him last Spring of a very bad cough, Bronchitis, Catarrh. A lady, formerly invalid, cured of prostration, &c., of 25 years. Mrs. M. C. Barr, colored laborer and Druggist, Mrs. S. J. Norman, Druggist, Pitts, 6 years. Cases of rheumatism, St. Vitus Dance, Liver and Throat diseases, one of the most successful, 2-12 inches round, &c., &c., in this vicinity. Diseases told at right. All Constitutional St. Medicines and advice on Chronic Cases from 1 to 10 months from $10 to $30. Dr. C's great experience enables him to prescribe for most cases with perfectness months ahead. Patients can call at any hour. See signs and card, direct to his rooms. Patients unable to call visited at home by special agreement. This is the Doctor's last visit for many months, as he has long neglected patients elsewhere.
